To Jesus through Mary
 and the Rosary!

Important
Dates

From the Principal's Desk

Dear Parents,
 Welcome to our first quarter Parent/Teacher Conferences to be held today, Thurs., Nov. 3 from 12:30 - 4:00 & then again from 5:00 - 7:30. We strongly encourage you all to attend these conferences, as they will be very helpful in guiding your child(ren) towards exceeding expectations in school. In addition, our first quarter report cards will be distributed at this time, so you will be able to assess your child's progress up to this point. (Please note that if any tuition payments are still owed, report cards will have to be withheld until they are paid. To resolve this matter, however, you may bring your tuition payment to our school office today before going to meet with your child's teacher).

In addition, please remember to take your children to Mass each Sunday! Every Sunday is a Day of Obligation wherein all Catholics are obliged to attend Mass under pain of mortal sin. It should not be a burden for us to attend Mass, however. We should feel privileged to attend the Heavenly Liturgy wherein we actually participate in Our Lord Jesus Christ's Sacrifice on Calvary. At every Mass, time and eternity meet, and we actually stand on the hill of Calvary with Mary, our Mother, as Jesus dies on the Cross for our salvation! How much Jesus and Mary love us all!

Sincerely in Jesus and Mary,
 Linda Andrejek
